

Verification Results

Positive: 0

Negative: 1

Use Case CF_ AVAS fault.docx: Do not match

Description: The development requirement I-24205 does not match the certification regulation UNECE R 138-01. The development requirement specifies a vehicle alerting system fault use case, while the certification regulation specifies requirements for the sound emission of electrified vehicles. The requirements in the certification regulation do not cover the use case described in the development requirement.